

Anne Hawes

"It is important to me to ensure that my clients are well informed when exploring their investment options. I am passionate about helping clients formulate a financial plan that is specific to their goals and objectives, working with them for the duration of their plan, and altering their strategy as their circumstances change."

Hi, I'm Anne and I've been with Westpac for over 15 years, working as an Investment Adviser.

I am a Certified Financial Planner^{CM} and have a Graduate Diploma in Business Studies majoring in Financial Planning.

I'd like to meet with you, to give me a chance to listen to what you want out of your investments and allow me to put together a plan that can make that happen.
